

Seabury Middle School Core Values
Developed by Seabury Middle School
Students
September 2009

RELIABILITY

Dependable

Trusted to do something

Trustworthy

Building a positive track record

Follow through with expectations

RESPONSIBILITY

Doing what you are asked

Honesty

To initiate without being asked

Take care of yourself/others/school

Doing your job as a student/community member

INTEGRITY

Being truthful in the face of consequences

Having honesty

Taking responsibility for your actions

Sticking to what you believe and what you have agreed to

Working to personal best

TRUST

Putting faith into someone

Respecting someone's trust in you

Counting on someone when needed

Believing in community

Follow through with someone's trust in you

Having belief in yourself

RESPECT

Being kind/compassionate

Accepting of others – opinions, differences

Politeness

Paying attention

FAIRNESS

Providing others with what they need

Showing impartiality, no bias

Giving others a chance

MATURITY

Acting your age or above

Listening to and following through with expectations

Joking at the "right time"

Socially appropriate

Good manners

Respectful of others

More independent

Good role model